of Musbury. The planning application is being submitted by Hugh Massy-Birch, owner of the Country Covers, suppliers of outdoor endurance clothing.

Details on his plans were revealed at an open meeting of neighbours and interested parties attended by more than 40 people.

Mr Massy-Birch told Pulman's View that the project had been two years in the planning stage.

He said he wanted to erect a wind turbine to provide green energy for his business, particularly as his current electricity transformer was not big enough.

Mr Massy-Birch staged an open afternoon for neighbours and all those interested on Thursday of last week to view display boards of the project showing the turbine viewed from various locations from five metres around the site.

Mr Massy-Birch said that no one lived within 500 metres of the proposed turbine, although he accepted there might be an issue with noise.

He said that East Devon planners were aware of his plans and that he expected to submit a formal application before Christmas.

Tigers competing with top teams

IT WASN'T pretty in places and it was fast and furious but Axminster Town proved in their 3-3 draw at home to Newton Spurs on Saturday that they can compete with the top teams in the South West Peninsular League Division One East.

Newton Spurs, having lost the previous week, have dropped out of the top four but, like Axminster, have games in hand over the teams above them.

Stoke Gabriel have taken over as league leaders after their 7-3 win over Sidmouth Town on Saturday with previous leaders Budleigh Salterton being beaten by Exeter University.

Exmouth Town still look like favourites, trailing the leaders by two points but with two games in hand.

The Tigers, who stay in sixth place, are four points behind the leaders on the same number of games but they have three games in hand over Budleigh in second place and Civil Service in third.

If they show the resilience demonstrated on Saturday, when they fought back from 3-1 down to 3-3, a top four place is well within their grasp.

But it won't be easy because, with the exception of Sidmouth, there are few weak teams in Division One East.

On Saturday the Tigers travel to Plymstock who are lying second from bottom with only one victory to their name this season.

Quotes of the week...

“ THIS is great feedback from the people who count - our users. But we are not resting on our laurels we want to make sure we keep up the excellent standards by focusing on the important things' ”

Councillor Phil Twist, EDDC deputy cabinet member for the environment, commenting on Connaught Gardens in Sidmouth receiving 100 per cent satisfactory rating from users of the public gardens in Sidmouth.

“ THE council is keen to encourage all supporters and objectors to make their voice heard and, if opposition is raised, put forward constructive, realistic alternatives to specific proposals' ”

A statement from East Devon District Council calling for commenters from the public on the local plan for the future of East Devon.

Wind turbine at Trinity Hill?

A PLANNING application is soon to be submitted for the erection of a wind turbine on Trinity Hill, near Axminster.

If permission is granted by East Devon District Council, the 71 metre-high turbine will be sited at Hartgrovehill in the parish of Musbury. The planning application is being submitted by Hugh Massy-Birch, owner of the Country Covers, suppliers of outdoor endurance clothing.

Details on his plans were revealed at an open meeting of neighbours and interested parties attended by more than 40 people.

Mr Massy-Birch told Pulman's View that the project had been two years in the planning stage.

He said he wanted to erect a wind turbine to provide green energy for his business, particularly as his current electricity transformer was not big enough.

Mr Massy-Birch said that no one lived within 500 meetings of the proposed turbine, although he accepted there might be an issue with noise. East Devon planners were aware of his plans and that he expected to submit a formal application before Christmas.

The turbine would take nine months to build, probably in Germany, and it would be at least two years before it was erected if permission was granted.

COLYTON

Council backs down

COLYTON Parish Council has agreed to hold future meetings in the Mortimer Room of the Feoffees Town Hall, following a long-running dispute over accommodation disabled parishioners.

All future council meetings will be held in the downstairs Mortimer Room at the back of the town hall, rather than in the upstairs and inaccessible Feoffees Boardroom, except for two each year which will continue to be held in Colyford Memorial Hall.

The request to move meetings to a different venue was initially rejected, a decision that caused much criticism in the town.

But the matter was discussed by the council again last week and it was agreed to hold future meetings in the Mortimer Room.

From the editor's chair An exclusive club indeed

DID you exercise your democratic right and cast your vote last for Devon's very first Police and Crime Commissioner?

If you did, you are part of a very exclusive club indeed as only 15 per cent bothered to turn out in Devon, one of the lowest figures in the country.

Business, I am told, was very slow in the East Devon polling stations, although none of them suffered the indignity of not having to deal with any votes at all, as happened in Newport, South Wales.

We are told that the election process to appoint a Police and Crime Commissioner, one of the Tories' election promises, in 41 areas in England and Wales cost an estimated £100 million. Shall I repeat that? £100 million! Enough to put 3,000 police officers on the beat.

By all accounts, by having a democratically elected Police and Crime Commissioner we will now have a greater say in how our communities are policed.

We should not worry about the cost either because the politicians tell us that the new system will work out to be less expensive as we will now not be paying expenses to those elected county councillors who served on the Police Authority.

Oh, just in case you missed it, former Naval Commander Tony Hogg, a Conservative, is your very first Police and Crime Commissioner. Treat him gently!

◆ THIS column is always keen to recognise those who serve our community so well, no matter in what field.

It gives me double delight to mention Les Haynes, a sporting friend of mine for longer than I care to remember. Les has just stood down after 48 years in the job of fixtures secretary at Axminster Cricket Club.

Our association goes back to the days when cricket was played in North Street, long before the coming of Cloakham Lawn.

During his time in the role Les has organised no fewer than 4,000 games, a task unlikely ever to be equalled.

So why did he not stay on to complete 50 years? Well, Les never made a 50 when he played cricket – so he decided not to break the habit of a lifetime!

OTTERY St MARY

Dementia service in line for award

AN INNOVATIVE service based at that helps older people with dementia in East Devon is in line for a prestigious national award.

The Rowan and Linden Centres at Ottery St Mary Hospital have been shortlisted for the Innovations and Best Practice in Community Hospitals Awards 2012.

The centres provide a safe haven and ongoing support for people with dementia, anxiety or depression.

The awards are run by the Community Hospitals Association and chief executive Barbara Moore recently visited Ottery's facilities on a fact-finding mission.

Team leader, Gaynor Appleby said: "We are absolutely delighted to be shortlisted for such a prestigious award.

"The staff here have worked really hard to make this service the success it is and the feedback from individuals, carers and families has been very positive since we opened two years ago.

"To be recognised nationally is proof that what we're doing is really proactive and positive for people with dementia, and we're delighted this model is now being copied in Axminster."

The Rowan Centre offers a 12-week assessment for individuals, who take part in a variety of activities under the watch of key workers, while carers and loved ones are given one-to-one support.

The Linden Day Centre provides activities and ongoing support for individuals such as day trips out to nearby towns and villages and respite for carers.

SEATON

New life for shelter

A SHELTER that has been the target of several arson attacks and vandalism in Seaton has been given a new lease of life after reopening last week.

The thatched hut on Castle Hill just next to Cliff Field gardens has been a constant target for damage since being erected on the site more than 80 years ago.

After months of the shelter being out of action following an arson attack in March, and following consultation with ward members and Seaton Town Council, the shelter has been sympathetically restored to its former appearance.

Thatcher, Philip White, has been working on the project and was pleased to see the difference the hut will make to Seaton. Many local people approached him and his team to thank them for restoring the shelter and making the walk up to Cliff Field Gardens a more beautiful sight.

EAST DEVON

Call for final views on EDDC local plan

RESIDENTS in East Devon, are set to get another say on the local plan as EDDC launches a final consultation on its proposals.

It marks the seventh district-wide consultation exercise since the project began in 2007. In the past these have included mailouts to over 60,000 households and workshops at towns and villages around the district.

The consultation is the next stage of a process which EDDC says it hopes will provide the district with a comprehensive planning blueprint for the next 15 years.

The draft plan is now available, including maps showing where policies apply and detailed development proposals in all towns and can be viewed online or downloaded at www.eastdevon.gov.uk/localplan

Paper copies of the plan are also available for public inspection at:

◆ East Devon District Council Offices, Knowle, Sidmouth, Mondays to Fridays 8.30am to 5pm

◆ Libraries in Honiton, Axminster, Ottery St Mary, Seaton and Sidmouth, during normal opening hours.

◆ Town Council Offices in Axminster, Honiton, Ottery St Mary, Seaton and Sidmouth.

Representations should be submitted to: Planning Policy Section, East Devon District Council Offices, Knowle, Sidmouth, by 12 noon on January 14th.

SIDMOUTH

Thumbs up for public gardens

SIDMOUTH'S Connaught Gardens have been given the thumbs up from users. In East Devon District Council's latest survey users gave the gardens a 100 per cent satisfaction rating.

The survey is conducted every other year by interviewing people that are using the gardens. Over 100 people were interviewed in the Connaught Gardens between July and October this year. Each person was asked 23 questions about different aspects of the gardens. They were asked to rate the gardens on a scale of very good to very poor. Respondents felt the following aspects were good or very good: cleanliness 100 per cent; floral displays 98 per cent; seating and benches 98 per cent; signage and interpretation 77 per cent.

Poppy window winners

■ IN a bid to generate interest in the Poppy Appeal, members of the Axminster branch of the Royal British Legion organised a shop window competition.

Town centre shops were encouraged to decorate their windows in a poppy theme with 20 taking part.

McKinlays estate agents in West Street was chosen as the winner and on Thursday of last week branch chairman David Warner presented an inscribed silver plate to director Karen Bostock.

Also present were pupils from Shute Primary School who contributed to the window display.

The competition was organised by Keith and Yvonne Taylor, who have run the Poppy Appeal in Axminster for the last ten years.

Second place went to the Hospiscare Charity

Shop in South street and the ARC charity shop was placed third. They each received a Legion

Diary for 2013.

Mrs Taylor thanked all the shops that took part in the competition.

Axminster charity concert

AN Axminster youngster will be joining with Seaton charity Seed International Fund Trust (SIFT) to travel to Nicaragua in February 2013.

Marcus Wood, 17, will be visiting the village of El Corozal on the island of Ometepe, Nicaragua, to help support families by building latrines and helping to improve their general standards of living.

As with all trips, Marcus must raise funds to help towards the cost of his expedition and as a talented musician, has planned a charity concert to help boost his fundraising.

The concert will feature a variety of types of music and will include a presentation about the work of SIFT and the latrines project in particular.

The concert will take place on Thursday (November 22nd) at Axminster Guildhall at 7pm.

All are welcome and entry is free with all donations welcome on the night.

The turbine would take nine months to build, probably in Germany, and it would be at least two years before it was erected if permission was granted.

Mr Massy-Birth thought many who attended the open meeting were surprised that the turbine would not have such a visual impact as they might expect because of the lie of the land on Trinity Hill.

Mrs Jane Bishop, the clerk to Musbury Parish Council, said members had attended the open afternoon and she expected the matter to be discussed at the council's next meeting on December 10th.

Marie Curie Cancer

IN a recent article in Pulman's View in which the Marie Curie Cancer charity appealed for a volunteer organiser in Axminster we gave the wrong contact number.

Those interested in the project should call 01884 703535. We apologise for the confusion.

Kirsty raises cash for trip

A FORMER Axe Valley Community College student has raised the funds required to take her to South Africa for eight months as a volunteer.

Eighteen-year-old Kirsty Webber, who lives in Shute, left the college this summer and has since prepared for her trip to South Africa.

A non-uniform day at the college back in May yielded £515 and - through a number of events and initiatives - Kirsty has now reached her target of £4,500.

Kirsty, who will turn 19 in December, is very grateful to everyone who contributed and said: "I will be going to South Africa on January 16th next year. I couldn't have done it with out the support from others, such as my local community and kind donations from the public.

"I have always wanted to do this and it was a great joy when I received the letter to tell me that I would be going to Cotlands Baby Centre, in Somerset West, South Africa."

Her trip has been set up through an organisation called The Project Trust, and Kirsty added: "It gives me a great feeling that I'm giving back to the world in one way or another.

"I am off to Coll, Scotland, the first week of December for training, then back for Christmas before I start my great experience.

"Thank you all who have helped and donated to The Project Trust for my experience to happen. Also, a thank you for my mum, Sheila Webber.

"I couldn't have done any of this without her fantastic support and guidance along the way. Thank you mum."

Volunteers join forces

VOLUNTEERS and residents joined forces to refurbish supported housing project Long Ragg Court in Axminster.

Long Ragg Court provides young homeless people with temporary accommodation and support to get their lives back on track. It is run by Independent Futures - part of Devon and Cornwall Housing - and the refurbishment took place on Friday, November 2nd.

The volunteers came through East Devon Volunteer Support Agency (EDVSA).

Independent Future support worker Chris O'Neill said: "Long Ragg Court has amazing potential and our vision is to create a warm and welcoming environment that encourages positive interaction and a feeling of community ownership.

"We want to promote an environment where residents can actively enhance where they live themselves, whilst sharing the facility and integrating with the wider local community."

Volunteer co-ordinator Sandra Chapman said: "I would like to thank everyone who participated.

"Even though it was hard work, it was good fun and we were all proud of our achievements."

"For volunteering opportunities in your area, contact Sandra on 01404 549045.

YOUNG PIRATES: The Church Rooms in Axminster became a spooky place to be for two days during half term. LORRY COLLISION CAUSES HOUSES TO LOSE POWER

TWO properties lost their electricity supply when a lorry hit a power cable along the A358 at Tytherleigh on Friday, November 9th.

A stretch of the road was closed for several hours, and a police spokesperson said shortly after the accident: "Traffic has been disrupted in Axminster after a lorry damaged a power cable.

"The incident happened at about 9.50am. on the A358 near Hill View Farm.

"It appears that a lorry has collided with an electricity pole and, as a result, another vehicle has been damaged.

"The road is likely to be closed until 5.30pm whilst Western Power deal with the cables.

"The Highways Agency has set up diversions around the scene."

There were no reports of injuries, but a spokesperson for Western Power Distribution said that two of its customers had lost their electricity supply.

Speaking to Pulman's View on Friday afternoon, spokesperson added: "We will work as quickly as we can to get the two customers re-connected."

Raising A Glass At Mole Avon

Champagne corks were popped last week as the new entrance foyer opened its doors into the extended shop at Mole Avon Town & Country Stores in Station Yard, Axminster. This marked the successful completion of phase one and by the end of the year other internal enhancements will also be complete.

Building work commenced in June of this year and Eddie Dayment from E J Dayment Construction was delighted that phase one was completed on schedule with minimal disruption to customers and staff at Mole Avon, as the existing shop remained open throughout the entire time.

Eddie leads a team of local experienced tradesmen and has established a reputation for quality workmanship, from design consultation through to project management. Eddie uses the services of local firms and suppliers as much as possible as he is keen to support the local economy. "My aim is to always use local trades and services in both the construction and completion side of things. At Mole Avon we have also considered sustainability and where possible we have recycled too".

Careful planning and development management has been paramount throughout the building work and this has been key to ensure a smooth transition. "It's still 'business as usual' as we enter the final phase of the project," Steve Broom from Mole Avon Town & Country Stores commented. "The extended undercover shopping area is now in use for our range of seasonal Christmas products and gift ideas. New look tills, enhanced customer service points and downstairs offices will be completed over the coming few weeks.

Our Store Manager, Rosie Herrod, would like to thank our staff for their hard work over the last few months and our customers for their support during the building work. We are delighted with the limited disruption it has caused and our thanks in particular must go to Eddie and also to Tim Mayers of Sparkbrights, our electrical contractor, in achieving this"

Seduction and intrigue as the SS

■ WHAT HO! Sir Evelyn Oakleigh (Rob Stephens) walking the decks of SS America with his fiancée Hope Harcourt (Kelly Apps) and her socialite mother, Mrs Wadworth T. Harcourt (Jan Carter)

S S America sailed into Axminster last week with a passenger list that epitomised the glamorous carefree days of the 1930s.

English toffs rubbed shoulders with nightclub dancers, Wall Street money men and would-be gangsters.

The result was a heady mix of romantic intrigue, brazen seduction and social one-upmanship, knitted together by some of songwriter Cole Porter's most memorable numbers.

There's one thing you can rely on with Axminster Operatic Society - they are never afraid to take on the big shows.

Hello Dolly, My Fair Lady, Showboat and Annie get Your Gun have all been staged at the Guildhall in recent years and Anything Goes will be remembered as another enjoyable production by the society's loyal audiences.

First performed on Broadway in 1934 with Ethel Merman in the lead role, Anything Goes was adapted over the years to accommodate many of Porter's iconic compositions, including "It's De-Lovely" and "I Get A Kick Out of You".

Musically, it was a sure-fire hit but the storyline was never a classic, although PG Wodehouse was involved in the original book.

The story concerns mad-cap antics aboard an ocean liner bound from New York to London. Billy Crocker is a stowaway in love with heiress Hope Harcourt, who is engaged to Lord Evelyn Oakleigh. Nightclub singer Reno Sweeney and Public Enemy No 13 Moonface Martin aid Billy in his quest to win Hope.

Vanessa Cross, a long-time favourite of Axminster audiences, threw herself into the role of Reno Sweeney with gusto, belting out the big numbers and sashaying her way through the dance routines in a performance worthy of the most seasoned of nightclub singers.

She was hot, definitely hot!

In recent years Kelly

Apps has established herself as one of the most talented of local performers and her portrayal of heiress Hope Harcourt, engaged to the drippy Sir Evelyn Oakleigh but lusting after love-struck Billy Crocker was no exception.

Kelly has mastered the art of combining haughtiness with flirtation to perfection and, of course, she has a beautiful voice, amply demonstrated in her rendition of the All

Through The Night with Billy.

An undoubted triumph of the show was the portrayal of the monacled English gentleman Sir Evelyn Oakleigh by Rob Stephens. Many of his lines were pure P.G. Wodehouse but he delivered them with the aplomb of the upper classes.

America sails into Axminster

Smith-Jones took on the challenging role of Billy Crocker. He featured strongly in most of the big numbers, including 'You're The Top', 'It's Delovely' and 'All Through The Night' and did particularly well in mastering the many cunning disguises in his bid to capture the heart of Hope.

Phil Atkins made a wholly believable ganster Moonface Martin, maintaining his New York accent throughout, and Robin Webber played the part of Bonnie, Moonface's moll, with the right balance of brashness and verve.

Tony Reader, as the Wall Street lush Elisha J. Whitney, Jan Carter (Mrs Wadsworth T. Harcourt) and Ted Churchett as the Missionary Bishop Henry T. Dobson, were generally faultless in their delivery.

And a special mention goes to four cuties - Emily Dear, Grace Lynn, Judith Izzard and Chloe Pottinger - who brought a touch of glamour to the show as Reno Sweeney's backing singers.

Good support also came from other leading cast members - Roly Kelly (steward), Barry Marshall (reporter), Brian Cursley (cameraman), Tim Leat and Ian Craig (Chinese converts and gamblers), Jerry Holt (captain), David Adams (purser) and Adam Chudley (sailor).

As always with Axminster Operatic, the show was well staged with excellent costumes and entertaining dance routines, especially the tap dancing scene. Any show with tap dancing in it, delivered professionally, is a hit with me.

My only disappointment of the night was the seemingly short finale in which 'You're The Top' was reprised. It needed one more big number, possibly the tap dance routine.

BBC Children in Need

Seaton and Beer schools do their bit for Pudsey

IT was a sleepy morning for Seaton Primary School children as they wandered into school, not wearing their uniform but their pyjamas.

Dressing in bedtime attire to raise funds for Children in Need, pupils and staff at the school joined in the day with a rainbow of pyjamas, colourful slippers and dressing gowns.

A spokesperson for the school said: "We all had a lovely day of fundraising with children donating 50p to wear their pyjamas and we raised around £250 in total. Thanks to everyone who supported the day."

■ Children from Miss Booker and Mrs Gillard's reception classes (left and above)

■ Seaton Primary School's Year Six embraced the pyjama theme and kept cosy in the playground

■ Year Five at Seaton Primary also enjoyed the Children in Need fundraising day

■ CHILDREN from Beer C of E Primary School looked a little different on Friday, as they dressed up as their favourite celebrities.

Raising money for Children in Need, the school was filled with famous faces from teeny Spice Girls to footballers and Olympic sports stars and even the Queen.

The children donated £1 each to come to school in fancy dress.

The youngsters began the day with a Key Stage Two 'dance off' using the school's Nintendo Wii Dance game with Class Four stealing the show and winning the competition.

Dancing to tracks from artists such as Rihanna and One Direction, the all-dancing group donated money to join in.

As lunchtime approached, brave Year Six's embraced the cold as they became the targets of a soakathon, with the lower years getting the chance to throw wet sponges at 20p a go.

This was followed by a blindfolded teachers' bake-off where the children could vote for their favourite cakes.

The fundraising day

ended with a bring and buy sale with cakes donated both by the children and parents to help boost fundraising on the day.

Spooky fundraiser raises more than £1,000 for Youth Epilepsy

DEDICATED members of staff from Beer Quarry Caves have been working hard to fundraise for Youth Epilepsy, raising more than £1,000 from Halloween events.

The fundraising was inspired by cave guide, Bob Jeeves, whose son Daniel will be running the 2013 London Marathon in the hope that he can raise £4,000 for the charity.

By Laura Goldsbury Boy

Bob's grandson Thomas Llewelyn was diagnosed with epilepsy at just three months old and has suffered with the condition for several years. Dedicated charity man Daniel is supporting his nephew by raising funds for a worthwhile charity close to his heart.

The fundraising began with spooky Halloween tours at the quarry caves where the public showed great generosity, with all the tours completely full and many putting their hands in their pockets to support the fundraising efforts.

Bravery came in the form of two staff members, receptionist Sue Cronshy and cave guide Bob, when they decided to further boost funds for the youth epilepsy charity by spending the night in the caves for a special fundraising sleepover.

Receptionist Sue explained: "I had always wanted to spend a night in the caves and so this seemed like the perfect opportunity whilst doing something both rewarding and supporting of Bob and his family.

"We have all been affected after hearing about Thomas's condition and the suffering him and his family must endure and I really wanted to do my bit to support them.

"We have gained sponsorship and everybody has been more than generous - it's overwhelming how many people wanted to help us."

The pair was sponsored to spend the night of Halloween in the caves in complete darkness, with just candles for light and sun loungers with sleeping bags for comfort.

Bob added: "The night went surprisingly well and really it wasn't spooky at all, with us even drifting off to sleep at times and then waking up to remember we were in the caves.

"It was a very cold night if anything but we lasted the whole night with a couple of candles burning and had a great time.

"My grandson Thomas is an amazing little character and we have already encountered so many remarkable people who have supported him and us as a family so I was overwhelmed with the further support from the public for our fundraising.

"Raising money for Youth Epilepsy has also helped us to raise awareness of the terrible condition and we have seen a phenomenal amount of support from all involved which is very touching.

"My son Daniel has been training really hard for the marathon and hopes to raise £4,000.

"With our fundraising we raised

£1,134.10 so with the public's support we have helped him with more than a quarter of his goal.

"Thank you to everyone for their incredible generosity and support of our Halloween events, helping us to give back just a little to such a worthwhile cause."

Gatecrasher joins spooky pedallers

■ GATECRASHER: Rob Watson, Pam Plant, Graham Jones and John Messenger with the ancient mariner at Axminster Arts Cafe

A SMALL Axe Valley Pedallers (AVP) contingent dodged heavy showers on Wednesday, October 31st to cycle along the estuary and up through Axmouth.

Leaving the main road they were soon on deserted and leaf-strewn lanes leading to Rousdon and onwards to the windswept top of Trinity Hill.

Participant Rob Watson said: "Ominous clouds could already be seen gathering over Dartmoor so discussion of the route, usually a lengthy process, was much quicker than usual and the group scuttled straight down the hill through the threatening storm to the shelter of the gazebo in the garden of Axminster Arts Café."

The cafe was preparing for a Hallowe'en party, and Mr Watson said: "There was a welcome hot drink, served by the usual friendly witches. It was only then that the tired cyclists noticed that they had been joined by the ghostly figure of an ancient mariner."

AVP Wednesday rides depart from Seaton seafront at 10am. More information is available online at www.axe-valleypedallers.org.uk.

Friends of FORCE raise more than £800

■ THE Axe Valley Friends of FORCE raised £815 at their coffee morning on Saturday. The event was held in Colyton Town Hall where stalls included cakes, produce, bric-a-brac, a tombola and raffle among other things. Organiser Maureen Clode, pictured above (far left) on the tombola, said they were very pleased with the total raised, which was about £100 up on last year's event. Further money would be raised from leftover items that were donated for sale, as these were picked up by the Exeter FORCE shop. Mrs Clode said: "Thanks to everyone who helped and supported us."

Double the fun at Caterpillars

■ FRIDAY was a double celebration for children at Colyton Caterpillars. The tiny tots marked Children in Need by wearing pyjamas for the day and having their faces painted as Pudsey Bear. They were also looking ahead to Christmas and had written letters to Father Christmas, which were picked up by a local postman for delivery to the North Pole.

Car service needs new drivers

THE hospital car service run by Colyton Link is looking for new drivers.

The car service, which this year celebrated its silver jubilee, takes passengers from Colyton and Colyford to medical appointments and to visit close relatives in hospital.

Passengers pay the driver a fixed tariff to cover journey expenses and also pay for car parking where needed.

Although the service has many volunteer drivers, more are always being sought. This is because most drivers have specific days or times when they cannot work and live active lives with limited time to volunteer.

Drivers prepared to accept long-distance journeys are particularly needed.

For further information on how to volunteer as a driver, contact Sue Pither on 01297 553241 or Pam Rattray on 01297 552212.

East Devon Women's Institutes ROUND UP

MUSBURY & WHITFORD

MUSBURY and Whitford WI met at Whitford Village Hall last week. The meeting was well attended and there were several visitors.

Apologies were taken and birthday posies given, including one for Marnie, Madame President herself.

Three of our members - Lesley, Maddie and Joan - gave demonstrations of Christmas crafts; these were very interesting and caused quite a queue.

Marnie gave the vote of thanks and they all received a little gift and some flowers for their efforts. The sales table was very popular with a good display of Christmas goodies and decos.

As it was our WI birthday, a celebratory cake and wine was served at the break. We had a great social time milling about from stall to stall. Valerie gave a brief resume of her visit to Barnstaple for the autumn council meeting, which was very funny.

Marnie also gave a short summary of her visit to the Meet the Executive Meeting and several party invitations were given out.

The next meeting is the Christmas Party, at Whitford Village Hall on Tuesday, December 11th; food lists did the rounds - please don't forget pressies for Santa's sack. The competition is a Christmas Fairy from a dolly peg.

There is a Christmas Fair at Musbury Village Hall on Saturday, November 24th.

Inspired by the Old Masters

HONITON ART SOCIETY

BRISTOL based artist, Warren Sealey, who trained in Canada and Florence, gave an informative and entertaining demonstration to an audience of over 50 members and visitors at Honiton Art Society's November meeting.

Inspired by the work of the Old Masters, whose techniques he studied whilst in Italy, he painted a classical portrait in oils from a painting by Velasquez.

Beginning with a precise drawing, he quickly blocked in light and dark areas, suggesting that at this stage it is best to look at the painting in an abstract way as simple tonal shapes.

Squinting at the picture, helping to eliminate detail, he then re-accessed his work adding more depth of colour and detail with thicker paint.

His flesh tones were achieved using a mixture of yellow ochre, vermilion or cadmium red and white, adding black for the shadows.

We were told that although the use of black became less popular after the Impressionists, it was widely used by the Old Masters. The portrait was finally brought to life with the addition of bright highlights. The meeting ended with a questions and answers opportunity.

The next meeting of the society is on Monday, January 14th at Awliscombe Village Hall, from 2 to 4pm, when local artist Mike Hughes will demonstrate Wild Life in Acrylics.

Visitors and new members very welcome. Visitors £2. The December meeting is the society's Christmas Party.

Nearly 200 entries for Whitford Autumn Show

THE organising committee of Whitford Autumn Show, which was held earlier this month, would like to say a big thank you to all those who made the event such a success.

There were nearly 200 entries, with a wide spread of vegetables, flowers, baking, photography and a very colourful children's section.

Keen gardeners once again entered a variety of produce and flowers, including chrysanthemums, which judge Derek Hurford was pleased to see were of a good standard considering the poor growing season. He was particularly impressed with the charms, which were of a very high standard and beautiful colour.

The children delighted the committee with their imaginative entries of trains and boats made out of vegetables, which gave the judges a really difficult time in selecting the winners!

The baking section was full of mouthwatering cakes, such as Riverside Cottage beetroot brownies, orange cider cake and savoury tarts.

The committee was also very pleased with the large numbers of people that came in the afternoon to enjoy the exhibits, chatted over a cup of tea and a slice of cake, and then joined in enthusiastically with the auction of produce at the end of the show.

The committee is grateful for the wonderful support that they received from the community to make this traditional village event a success.

CUP WINNERS

Whitford Cup for best three blooms of Chrysanthemums - Brian Gardner; Andrew Gray Cup for most prize money in Chrysanthemum class - Brian Gardner; Colyton Agricultural Cup for the overall winner of flowers, vegetables and fruit - Chris Loud; Ernie Gardner Cup for best Chrysanthemum in the show - Andrew Solden; Donald Baker Cup for the vegetable section - Chris Loud; Mr & Mrs F W R Laverack Cup for the wine and beer class - Chris Loud; Ladies Trophy for the cookery class - Wendy Mitcham; Betty Gardner Cup for children over 10 years - Josie Mabbutt (Josie is the great granddaughter of Betty Gardner); Nancy James Cup for children under 10 years - Jake Mabbutt.

Imagine the peace of mind you'll feel knowing that your loved one is getting the best possible care in a loving and understanding environment. Located in the delightful seaside town of Exmouth, Rose Lodge is the perfect place for people living with Dementia to experience the highest quality of life.

Caring for someone with dementia yourself can be tiring and often very distressing. Coping with someone whom you may have known and loved for years but who may now often fail to recognise you can be desperately upsetting and difficult to deal with.

Rose Lodge is an active and social home. We have found that people with dementia are generally happier when they are supported to be as active and independent as possible. Our weekly activities programme includes gardening, live music, drama, singing, crafts, a pub quiz, rambling, art, and trips out, as well as individual occupational activities.

So, moving into a home like Rose Lodge is the perfect way for you to give your loved one the best quality of life. In our 2011 relatives survey, all relatives agreed that Rose Lodge offers an excellent quality of care and that their loved one's wellbeing has improved significantly since they joined Rose Lodge. All of them said they would recommend Rose Lodge to their friends.

We offer DAY CARE, RESPITE CARE and RESIDENTIAL CARE and free trial days.

Please call Peter or Karen now on 01395 227071 to discuss your needs.

Kilmington Remembrance service well attended

SOME 130 people attended the ecumenical Service of Remembrance in St Giles' Church on November 11th, conducted by the Royal British Legion branch chaplain, the Rev Darrell Holmes, writes BRIAN LAVENDER.

Gill Heighway, a Mission Community Reader, gave the address, and the lessons were read by David Pengilly from the Baptist Church and Roger Lovegrove, branch chairman.

Air Cadet Corporal Alex Kerslake gave a fine rendering of the Last Post and Reveille before the service ended with the national anthem.

The collection was donated to the Poppy Appeal. Many residents assembled at the war memorial for the short service led by Pastor Darrell who read out the names of Kilmington residents killed in the two world wars.

The chairman led the Exhortation and after the Last Post two maroons were fired to mark the Two Minutes Silence as it was also the anniversary of Armistice Day.

Roger Lovegrove then gave the Kohima Epitaph before laying an RBL wreath on behalf of the branch. Kilmington residents were followed by Special Constable Olive Storey who laid a wreath on behalf of the police. Many children had made tributes to the fallen, laying them alongside the wreaths. Refreshments were served afterwards in the Village Hall.

Over 60 Kilmington branch members enjoyed a delicious Sunday Lunch in the impressive Great Tithe Barn at Haselbury Mill and a number attended the Quiz Night in The New Inn, conducted by Clive Garner, in aid of the Poppy Appeal which raised £305.

Shorter working week but no loss of pay at Power Tools to our employees.

"It is important that as a company, we continually improve our ethos of work/life balance values and show our staff how committed we are to them."

Apart from the reduced working week, all other elements of the package have already become effective.

New ways of working

The spokesperson added: "We embraced new ways of working to ensure firm foundations were in place for continuing success."

"In just two months the company has seen a fantastic result with October sales exceeding all previous months in its 40-year history of trading."

"The staff have really embraced the new ways of working which is all about trust, commitment and the desire to succeed as an individual, a team and as a whole."

"The October figures say it all and will ensure the company can continue to move forward with its future investment plans.

"As a thank-you to all staff, a free lunch was provided by the company's canteen."

Technology support technician Cory Schultze said: "The whole thing's based on trust and respect and you're completely responsible for your own timekeeping. It's a mature system and I think it's already being proven a success."

"Another part of it is the new flexible time policy – where we can give and take a little time here-and-there and because we're not clock-watching, the company is happy to give you time if you've worked hard for it, so that's nice."

"The option has also been given to staff to either start at the usual 8am and finish early at 5pm so you can play sports or get your prescription, or have an extra half hour in bed and finish at 5.30pm."

"I suppose there'll always be a bit of scepticism when a change comes about but I honestly think this is a change for the better and one that benefits the employee as well as the company."

■ SIZZLE KINGS: Complete Meats' owner Shaun Vining with Al Murray

Local butcher meets the Pub Landlord at sausage week finals

COMEDIAN and 'Pub landlord' Al Murray was this year's 'King of Sizzle' in the search for the tastiest and most innovative sausages across the country as part of the 15th annual British Sausage Week held earlier this month.

Hundreds of butchers entered the competition and Axminster's Complete Meats made it to the South West regional finals, judged in Bristol by Al and a team of professional tasters.

Complete Meats' Old English and Traditional Pork both made it to the final taste-off but were eventually pipped at the post.

Murray said: "The standard of entries in the South West was incredibly high" For Al, who turned up in character as his comedy alter-ego the Pub Landlord, promoting sausages sounds like a labour of love. When asked his favourite sausage, he replied "Whatever one's in front of me. Love the one you're with."

The comedian, whose onstage persona is a well-known defender of all things British, spoke rapturously of a proper British food that can be served in a sandwich, with potatoes and in many other dishes – or as the always popular cold leftover sausage in the fridge.

"It's the all-round food," he said.

ONE of Axminster's biggest employers has gone totally against austerity Britain norm by reducing the working week as an incentive - with no loss of pay for workers.

The somewhat unorthodox measure will come into effect on January 1st as part of a wider package at Axminster Tool Centre Ltd.

The company employs 250 people and bosses say the package is being put in place to improve its ethos of work/life balance values.

A company spokesperson said: "Among the initiatives instigated for all employees are the reduction of the working week with no loss of pay, the abolition of the clocking-in system, performance-related bonuses together with improvements to working conditions and benefits."

"The working week has been reduced from 42.5 hours to 40 hours."

"Additional flexibility will be possible on a Friday afternoon subject to an individual department's rostering needs."

"It is the new way of working we want to bring

Country Farm Butchers

COUNTRY Farm Butchers is a small family run butchers situated in the town of Ottery St Mary.

Surrounded by a large and very proud farming community, Steve Bealey has owned the shop for the past seventeen years and with thirty five years experience in the meat trade, puts his success down to traditional values and first class service. Steve and Head Chef Matthew have for a number of years now worked very closely together to achieve consistently high standards and the finest quality meat possible.

Beef, which is mainly South Devon's, is hung for a minimum of twenty one days to achieve full flavour and tenderness. The end result is perfect steaks and roasts every day of the week. The highest quality Dorset X Charollais lambs, fed on natural grassland, come from Cotleigh farm just a mile from the pub. These appear on the menu in the form of racks and chumps while Pork is sourced from the Butterford estate at nearby Talaton. Game birds and venison arrive from local shoots so discerning meat eaters are extremely well catered for.

Country Farm also sells local free range chicken and ducks along with homemade sausages, burgers and free range eggs together with locally made pies and pasties.

Pulman's View from the churches

With NIGEL SPELLER

THE Rev'd John Streeting writes from Axminster: November is for the church the month of remembrance. We began with our celebration of All Saints and then All Souls when we especially remember our friends and family who have died.

Then last week came Remembrance Sunday. Although not a religious festival like Christmas and Easter, it is nonetheless one of the most significant Sundays of the year, and interestingly attracts considerably more people nowadays than when I was growing up in the Sixties and early Seventies.

The reason for this is perhaps not difficult to understand. In those days Remembrance Sunday was specifically an occasion to commemorate those who had fallen in the two world wars. It was often said that such a commemoration meant little to the young and even glorified war.

I am delighted to say that very few would argue that today and it was extremely heartening to see at least 60 young people in church on November 11th for our service of Remembrance in Axminster, which was packed out.

In the last 50 years, we have experienced a number of other conflicts - two Gulf Wars, the invasion of Iraq and its aftermath, and of course, the war in Afghanistan which continues to this day. So much suffering and loss!

That of the young soldier blown up by a land mine, or the deadly activity of the suicide bomber, or even the ironic tragedy of the one killed by friendly fire. Let us never lose sight of the need for Remembrance especially of those who have given their lives for our freedom.

Amidst a full weekend of national events ranging from Remembrance Sunday with its special services and parades, and problems at the BBC, news came as promised, of the 105th Archbishop of Canterbury who is to be Justin Welby, currently Bishop of Durham. He will become the leader of the world's 77m Anglicans, and will be enthroned at Canterbury Cathedral on Thursday 21st March 2013 which is the Feast of Thomas Cranmer, Archbishop and Martyr 1556.

Following on this excitement, the General Synod of the Church of England meets at Westminster from November 19th-21st when the first main agenda item is a debate on final approval for women bishops - which will last all day. After other business, Synod ends on Thursday with farewells especially to Archbishop Rowan.

The 2012 Olympic Games inspired many churches to host free community events. The Church of England has launched a campaign of goodwill for Lent 2013 and later. A booklet - Love Life Live Lent - Be the Change! offers daily activities for use in Lent. A bit earlier - on Saturday, December 15th at 7:30pm in Exeter Cathedral - a choral concert is offered with tickets at the Cathedral Shop now.

AMERICAN Gina King moved from Houston, Texas, to Honiton in 1999. She has since moved to Axminster, where she owns Route 66 and Route 66 Express with her husband Kirk. They have three children: Ellery, Quinlan and Nicholas. Despite coming from the Republican stronghold of Texas, she is a staunch Barack Obama supporter, so was very happy when she spoke to Pulman's View the day after the US election.

● HOW did a Texan end up in Devon?

I had relatives in Croydon on my mother's side and they trickled down to the West Country. I came over to visit them in early 1999. I left but came back later that year. The first trip was an extended holiday when I tried to decide if I should move to Devon or New England, USA. I chose Devon.

● BEFORE the 2008 US election, Route 66 resembled a Barack Obama campaign office - but not before this year's election. Why?

I honestly thought it was a given that he would be re-elected. He has done a good job. Four years of cleaning up, now four years of progression. Now he has four years to shine. I'm very optimistic for the next four years.

● HAVE you got any hobbies?

Belly dancing, that's what I do. I started when I was 14 in the States, and started professional training when 17. I was not sure how the West Country population would respond to belly dancing, so I thought I'd hold off and see how people's reactions would be when I moved here. Then St Clare's in Seaton approached me, and it went from there. Although I've had breaks over the years when having babies, I keep going back. For the past three years I've made a nice little group of girls in Axminster. I train the girls to go out with me and perform at charitable events. Anyone interested in joining or booking us can call in at Route 66 and have a word. All ages and all sizes are welcome.

● WHAT is your favourite holiday destination, and why?

I'd have to say Bulgaria. It's home from home. We have a house there and it's [the country] 30 years behind in fashion and culture - but it is a lovely place to be and the people are very hospitable and kind. And the food is great.

● WHICH is your favourite food?

I love Louisiana food like gumbo and jambalaya - and all things sweet.

● WHICH is your favourite drink?

Starbucks' white chocolate mocha. I'm a Starbucks girl.

● AFTER several years in Axminster, what do you particularly like about the town?

For such a small town, the number of multicultural food outlets is fantastic. I wish every town had that selection.

● IS THERE anything you particularly dislike about the town?

Massive trucks going through the town and rattling windows.

● DO you watch 'Dallas'?

Of course I watch Dallas. It [the new series] is never going to make the impression that the original Dallas did, but it is alright.

Plea to help wild birds this winter

THAT excellent research charity, the Game and Wildlife Conservation Trust, based at Fordingbridge, Hampshire, has just put out an appeal to farmers to do their utmost to help wild birds this winter.

Currently there is a movement of birds from Europe into Britain and fieldfares, redwings, bramblings, song thrushes, chaffinches and robins are heading our way in the belief that, as usual, our countryside will provide a much richer selection of berries and seeds than will be found on the European wintering grounds.

Sadly, the outlook is grim. The dreadful wet summer has virtually wiped out the usual harvest of hedgerow berries and fruit, while even acorns and beechmast are scarce.

The result is that there will be only a limited supply of food for our resident native birds, never mind the hordes of migrants now coming in.

If we have a bitterly cold winter the mortality amongst garden and field birds will be very high. In addition, game cover crops, many of which contain wild bird seed mixes, and sown for shoots countrywide, have in many cases failed. The situation has been made even worse by a massive population explosion of slugs which have destroyed acres of wildlife crops.

Research by the GWCT has shown that farmland bird numbers are doubled when additional grain seeds are provided in hoppers during the winter and these findings have persuaded the Government to add over-winter supplementary feeding as an option available to farmers through Stewardship schemes.

Farmers are advised to spread grain on firm free-draining tracks or near over-wintered stubbles or use a wild bird mix. Little and often is the theme and fresh areas should be used around every three days. Food hoppers can also be employed, and these should be set close to hedges, bushes or trees to help provide protection from predators such as sparrowhawks. The best time to feed and help wild birds is from the beginning of January to the end of April. Rat control is also vital, as grain and seed will quickly attract these wretched creatures.

Garden owners can also make a vitally important contribution by making sure that bird feeders are topped up throughout the winter months and additional foods, such as fat balls and sunflower seeds are employed. The simple fact is that we must make every effort to assist a wide range of bird species to survive what is likely to be a sparse winter.

I hear that Devon Wildlife Trust is planning to plant more than 1,000 trees throughout Exeter to help provide more attractive green spaces for the city's people and wildlife.

Native trees to be planted include rowan, oak, hazel, alder and hawthorn as well as cherry and apple trees. Communities across the city have responded in magnificent fashion and hundreds of trees have already been planted. In the light of the tragic ash dieback countrywide, every effort must be made to help re-establish woodland in all its forms and wherever suitable.

Meanwhile, you may have noticed that Christmas is looming up! On Saturday, December 8th, a Dorset Christmas Food and Craft Fayre (why not Fair?) will be coming to the Dorset Wildlife Trust's Kingcombe Centre.

Local meats and mulled wine will be on offer, as well as live demonstrations of winter foraged foods by John Wright of TV's River Cottage, and there will, of course, be Christmas cards and wildlife gifts for sale. You can also enjoy a roast pork and apple bap with your mulled wine!

The Kingcombe Centre is by the village of Lower Kingcombe, near Toller Porcorum, and the Fayre (Fair) will be open from 10am to 4pm. Post code for those with sat navs is DT2 0EQ. Entry is free.

4,000-strong protest, a sign of what's to come?

■ THE astonishing turnout recently in Sidmouth of more than 4,000 demonstrators against the planning proposals for the Sid Vale, needs some explanation as to the background to these events.

What is this all about and why is it happening in such a peaceful, law-abiding area?

Throughout the entire EDDC area, communities are being inundated with meetings and plans for more "dwellings" and attempts by EDDC to "consult" with the people already living in these places.

This usually amounts to EDDC plus a few "on board" local councillors outlining which possible sites have outline planning potential in the area concerned, and advising that there have to be say, 50 dwellings built therein, and which of the sites would be preferred by the "locals".

No one states why the 50 dwellings are required, simply that "there is a need" for these, so let me explain.

In the last decade under the guise of delivering the EU Policy of Regional Government and Social Cohesion, the unelected SW Regional Assembly developed the Regional Spatial Strategy (RSS), and that strategy specified precisely just how many dwellings etc had to be provided in East Devon and all the other Sub-regions of the EU – if you didn't know, we live in sub-region UKK4 of the EU – don't forget that.

These amount to 17,100 for East Devon over the period 2006-2026 and that a percentage of this total had to be for affordable homes.

When the previous Labour government lost to the new kids on the block, the unelected Regional Assemblies were abolished but the RSS survived as an intrinsic part of EU plans being driven from central government, and the local governments all developed their own Local Development Frameworks which they are now delivering.

The number for East Devon remains at 17,100 by 2026 so the RSS survives and continues as a plan for dealing with increased population and immigration.

Welcome to the European Union - and to the art of failing to tell us of the reasons for all this.

There is indeed a known conspiracy amongst politicians from the top down, not to mention the EU in any policy or action which is likely to be unwelcome or unpopular, as it may reflect badly on the EU.

The RSS forms part of the EU Policy for Social, economic, territorial and environmental Cohesion whilst we head for a population of 70 million.

For all the benefits of these policies, we currently send over £50 million per day to the EU.

As I write, the EU is experiencing the biggest protest yet seen in Spain, Portugal, Greece and Italy against the ridiculous austerity programmes imposed by its gauleiters, whilst we can see the same modus operandi emanating from EDDC.

I hope such things never happen here but the 4,000 plus in Sidmouth might just be a foretaste unless government is returned to the people and away from the bureaucrats and gauleiters.

Thanks for the support, Tesco

■ I AM writing to say how excited I am that Tesco is now making further plans for the development of two sites.

I am looking forward to seeing the housing development starting and particularly, the opportunity this will offer to many young families.

With the construction of several hundred homes, will also be the building of affordable housing. Seaton needs to grow to offer both work and housing for our young people.

The next plan to attract a Hotel development promises a wonderful opportunity to attract visitors and other investment in our beautiful town and area.

I hope that this will include a leisure complex with sports facilities, a swimming pool, a national food take-away and restaurant.

People would also appreciate and support a cinema and bowling alley.

I have written a letter of support to the East Devon District Council to encourage support for the development plans of the Racial site to be reviewed following the recent wrongful decline of the project.

This area is one of two gateways into our fabulous town and the Jurassic Coast.

I cannot believe that this project and development was not embraced by Seaton Town Council and EDDC.

Please can others write to EDDC to state their support of the Racial development plans. It would be an amazing development and once people have driven through Axmouth and along the beautiful estuary road, to then cross over the bridge and harbour and see the apartments and walkway and another marina and a quay – WOW – visitors and residents alike would so much more enjoy Seaton and all that it has to offer.

Thank you to Tesco for the work opportunities they have offered to many who live in Seaton and the area, particularly the young people.

It is our future. We need to look after it. Thank you to Tesco for the investment in our town and the wonderful walkways and public realm areas. It has been delightful to see extra activities and events going on in these areas for people to enjoy and support.

The holiday park was sadly in decline and needed investment.

I have asked Tesco to put up a display board and box, so that people can state their preferences and ideas for consideration.

I have suggested the display board includes information about Tesco's plans for the development of its two sites.

So many people want change and more opportunities for Seaton and the area.

Thank you also to Tesco, for its support of the organisations in the town, as I know Tesco gives generously of its time and money and resources in promoting events and activities for everyone.

Another piece of history disappears

■ ANOTHER piece of Seaton history has disappeared from our midst.

Seaton Town Social Club, who resided at Winstons, closed its doors on Sunday. The club had been around for nearly 70 years and for it to close so suddenly was a terrible shock to the members and staff.

The announcement came from club president; John Vanderwolf with very little time for members to react to the situation.

It was only last week that a Christmas Day lunch was discussed and planned. Now Christmas has been ruined!

It is a real shame the club could not have remained open over the Christmas and new year period which would have given members time to resolve any problems and save the club from extinction.

HOMES AND GARDENS

Let these local businesses make your house a home and your garden glorious

Customers praise local window repair company for its honesty

HONESTY and double-glazing firms aren't always the most natural bedfellows. But one window repair company has proven itself to be the ethical face of the industry. Ripping up the salesman's rulebook, WindowGeeks and its national network of local franchisees have made a pledge to sell customers what they need, and nothing more. And hundreds of homes and businesses throughout Devon – and thousands more across the nation – will attest to its integrity.

"Much of our business comes from existing customers telling all their friends and family about us," says WindowGeeks' Devon franchisee, John Commander. "It's the best endorsement you can get and one we've earned by being totally transparent."

"Customers know exactly what to expect with us. If a part needs replacing and it costs just £45 including labour, then that's what they'll pay, and not a penny more. Many window companies aren't interested in those sorts of jobs. They'd rather coerce people into spending thousands of pounds on new windows and doors that they don't actually need!"

WindowGeeks specialises in repairing windows, doors and conservatories. It repairs or replaces just the broken parts, makes good what can be fixed, and leaves customers with a bill hundreds, if not thousands of pounds lower than expected. Despite that, John's customers still expect the worst.

"It's like taking your car to the garage when you're not mechanically-minded, people are worried about the unknown," he says. "And even though our quotes are totally free, customers don't always believe us. They think there's going to be an unexpected charge when we turn up. But that's never the case, and people are still surprised by that."

With headquarters in Cheshire, WindowGeeks chose to franchise its business and bring in skilled partners, like John, to run its local operations. So, while customers' first contact with the brand might be its call centre in the north, the sale, survey and installation are all looked after by local franchisees and their staff.

"We're not a faceless organisation," says John. "This is my business, I live in Tavistock and I employ from the local community. But we're also part of a much bigger brand. So customers get the security and reputation of a national organisation with the attention to detail and service of a local business owner. And that's something only a franchisee like WindowGeeks can offer."

THE MAGICAL MUSICALS

Songs from the West End stage and Broadway

A STUNNING musical entertainment featuring three international artistes will be staged at the Manor Pavilion Theatre, Sidmouth on some of the most popular musicals from the West End stage and Broadway. The packed two set programme includes numbers from Les Miserables, Grease, Chicago, Mama Mia, Saturday Night Fever, Phantom, Wicked and much more.

The singers have impressive musical backgrounds. Kim Graham has worked extensively in Europe and the U.S.A. where she performed as Frida in the Abba Legends show at the Imperial Palace, Las Vegas. Claire Meshaw's West End credits include Eponina in Les Miserables and Sophie in Mama Mia. The slick choreographed show, with superb lighting and costume changes, is an unmissable treat for lovers of stage musicals.

Ticket £13 from theatre box office 01395 514413 and Exmouth Information Centre 01395 222299.

MUSICAL MAGIC | Nick Pedgen, Kim Graham and Claire Meshaw

Masterly playing

Douglas Hollick, St Paul's Church, Honiton, November 13th
ReView by Andrew Carter

AS PART of the Honiton Antiques Festival, the Joanna Leach Foundation and Music at St Paul's presented a concert in St Paul's Church featuring the distinguished international organ recitalist Douglas Hollick on Tuesday, November 13th. The organ at St Paul's, built by Kenneth Tickell in 1999, is widely recognised as the finest church organ in the South West, and under Mr Hollick's agile hands (and feet!) its full majestic potential was fully demonstrated.

The programme showed that music does not have to be well known to be accessible, tuneful, emotionally profound – and simply thrilling. Douglas Hollick played a carefully contrasted choice of mainly 17th-century pieces from Germany, England and France, prefacing each group with a succinct and learned introduction setting the music in a broader cultural context. His playing – the fruit of long familiarity with historical performance practice – was exemplary: technically impeccable, emotionally mature, sensitive and, when needed, dramatic. His skilful registration deployed the full range of tone-colours of the organ, but always in the service of the music.

The organ of St Paul's is a major cultural asset for the town, East Devon and the region. It could have had no more persuasive advocate than Douglas Hollick. One hopes for further concerts of this quality – and bigger audiences.

Local musician to hold fundraising concert

MARCUS Wood, a talented young local musician, is holding a concert this Thursday (November 22nd) at Axminster Guildhall.

Marcus is going to Nicaragua with SIFT (Seed International Fund Trust - seaton based charity) in February 2013 to help build latrines for families in the village of El Corozal on the Island of Ometepe, and the concert is being held to raised funds for the trip. The concert will feature a variety of types of music and a presentation about the work of SIFT and the latrines project in particular. The concert begins at 7pm. Entry is free and there will be an opportunity to make a donation during the evening.

Enjoy Christmas at The White Hart Inn, Wilmington

THE White Hart, Wilmington is a traditional style thatched Devon inn on the busy A35 just outside Honiton, where you can always be sure of a warm Christmas welcome.

The pub burned down in 2004 but was sympathetically rebuilt in 2005, of the original building there only remains the inglenook in poachers; you can still see the soot marks from the fire and they are adding a refurbished stove to make it extra comfy. The White Hart's two resident greyhounds and their whippet friend sleep on their sofas in the main bar and other dogs are welcome throughout.

Steve, the Inn's chef, has been cooking for 20 years in various establishments in Devon in many different ways from tapas to traditional pub cooking. He has designed a Christmas menu for party nights but there is also a full traditional Christmas lunch on every day from December 1st to 23rd.

The White Hart source all their food supplies from the south west, supporting locally where possible. If you have visitors they have three well appointed letting rooms that come with a bumper breakfast!

The White Hart run a series of events throughout the year; check out their facebook page for updates!

BOOK YOUR CHRISTMAS PARTY AT THE HEATHFIELD INN NOW!

SET in the charming town of Honiton, lies the beautifully thatched Heathfield Inn, a traditionally Devon run house dating from the 16th century and previously an old farmhouse known as 'The Barn'.

The non-smoking restaurant seats 50 and offers an excellent choice of mouth-watering modern European dishes and local specialties from the A La Carte menu. A wide range of 25 wines from around the world, 3 real ales and a range of spirits are available from the large well stocked bar, which runs adjacent to the informal dining and comfy lounge areas of the traditional open plan bar.

An open fireplace separates the non-smoking Heathfield restaurant, which again is very traditional with exposed beams and wooden paneling. Business clientele, locals, families and tourists come together in comfort to enjoy the home-cooked menu and local specialties, all very reasonably priced. Win tickets to the South West Christmas Equine Fair

JOIN the adventure with Emma Massingale at this year's South West Christmas Equine Fair 2012 held at Westpoint in Exeter on Saturday 8th and Sunday, December 9th.

Emma is regarded as one of the UK's leading horse behaviourists and has been dubbed the 'horse whisperer' by the British and US press. She will be demonstrating her knowledge and experience in natural horsemanship within the indoor supreme equine arena.

Not only does she have the ambition and enthusiasm to help train horses and students from all across the UK she also loves the work she does 'as everyday is different'. Learning to ride before she could walk prompted her career a - the horse she had at the time wouldn't conform to the conventional training system.

There was only one way for Emma, she had to learn and understand why some horses have learning and behaviour difficulties. This took her across the world where she gained her experience from working with some of the world's top horsemen in places such as Australia, Germany, Portugal, UK and has led to her success with horses.

In 2001, Emma set up her training centre in Devon starting young horses and working with the difficult ones.

SPOTLIGHT
ON MY SERVICEEast Devon Cleaning
For a healthier home...

EAST Devon Cleaning Services is a privately owned, local business, and a full member of the National Carpet Cleaners Association (NCCA) the only nationally recognised trade association dedicated to the cleaning of your carpets, hard flooring, chairs and sofas.

As a member of the NCCA, with East Devon Cleaning Services, you can have peace of mind that your valuable flooring and upholstery is safe in our hands, being fully insured and professionally trained and certified.

Our state of the art cleaning machinery is many times more powerful than most machines offering you a superior, deeper clean with faster drying times. We use the latest leading eco-friendly cleaning pre-sprays and solutions, agitation and then hot water extraction to remove traffic lane dirt, spills, around 95% of stains, eliminating pet odours or carpet smells in general. Your carpet or upholstery will be left nearly dry and without any sticky, dirt attracting residues which will prevent rapid resoiling.

Just as the clothes we wear day to day, year to year become dirty and worn so do our chairs, sofas and carpets. A professional clean can remove any dirt and proteins that have built up, restore the pile and bring new life to your carpets and upholstery ensuring a much healthier home.

Driveways, garden paths and patio areas can become slippery and dangerous at this time of year, a thorough clean can ensure your external hard floor areas are free of moss and slime preventing slips and falls over Christmas and in the new year.

East Devon Cleaning Services believes the success of the company relies on giving the best possible customer service. Not just a superior clean, but a friendly, knowledgeable and reliable service you can rely on. If you have 3 rooms or 2 rooms and a suite cleaned before Christmas we will clean and additional room for FREE.

New Toyota Auris: Low running costs, low tax and lasting value

THE appeal of new Auris's sharp looks and driving dynamics is matched by competitively low running and maintenance costs, low tax and lasting value that make it an all-round compelling choice.

The British-built hatchback is attracting significantly higher residual values than its predecessor, while across the board – full hybrid, petrol and diesel powertrains – improvements have been made in fuel efficiency and emissions that mean less money spent at the pumps and lower tax bills.

These factors combine with Toyota's fundamental product quality, reliability and durability, plus sharp contemporary styling and high equipment specifications to make new Auris a strong contender in a hard-fought market.

For example, the top-of-the-range Auris Hybrid Excel (91g/km CO2 emissions and 72.4mpg combined cycle fuel economy) will cost less for a company to offer on its fleet than a more modestly specified, mid-grade Focus, Astra or Golf. For the company car driver, the personal savings are considerable, too: more than £2,000 compared to a Focus with similar power output and more than £1,500 compared to a Golf over three years and 60,000 miles. The mid-grade Auris Hybrid Icon is a similarly attractive proposition, with total driver savings of up to £1,600 over the same timescale compared to key rivals – including low output eco-diesels.

Toyota has re-engineered the 1.4 D-4D diesel engine in Auris and added a Stop & Start system to increase efficiency. As a result, the Icon model produces 103g/km of CO2 and posts official combined cycle fuel consumption of 72.4mpg. This contributes towards a better pence-per-mile cost* to businesses for the Toyota than the Focus, Astra, Golf and Hyundai i30 (reference KWIK carcost data).

Where residual values are concerned, CAP predicts a 34 per cent rating for the new Auris Hybrid Excel, an improvement of five points on the current T Spirit model, and a 35.2 per cent RV for the Auris 1.4 D-4D Icon, a rise of more than six percentage points compared to the current Auris TR.

Ewan Shepherd, Toyota General Manager Fleet and Remarketing, said: "The economic climate dictates that businesses have to scrutinise every aspect of their costs.

Looking at new Auris's cost profile there are significant financial advantages to be gained for both fleet operators and business/company car drivers by choosing Auris.

"Auris continues to deliver the most competitive ownership costs, which makes it a rational choice for business, but the new model introduces improved design and driving dynamics that give it more emotional appeal, too. As a key element in our strategy to provide customers with more desirable and competitive products, we believe it will have a particularly strong appeal to small and medium-size businesses."

'Suv of the year' accolade for Subaru XV

- Subaru XV named 'SUV of the Year' by 4x4 Magazine
- Judges praise fuel economy, enjoyable driving characteristics and ground clearance
- Industry-leading customer service package confirms victory in hard-fought class

Subaru UK has announced that its compact crossover, the Subaru XV, has been named 'SUV of the Year' by 4x4 Magazine.

Putting the XV through its paces, both on- and off-road, 4x4 Magazine crowned the XV its class winner in one of the hardest-fought categories in a special '4x4 of the Year' issue. The SUV market has expanded rapidly in recent years with the proliferation of compact crossovers, and 4x4 Magazine placed Subaru's latest All-Wheel Drive model ahead of key rivals from Audi, Kia, Mazda, Nissan and Volkswagen.

The judging panel, comprised of members of the magazine's editorial team, praised the XV's 'enjoyable' and 'involving' drive, fuel economy and off-road ability. Subaru's industry-leading customer service package, Everything Taken Care of (ETCo), also helped tip the balance in the Subaru's favour.

Commenting on the XV's victory, Nigel Fryatt, Editor, 4x4 Magazine, said: "The SUV class in 4x4 Magazine's 4x4 of the Year test is one of the most competitive. The Subaru XV was an interesting new arrival in that class, which did much to impress judges.

"For a vehicle which obviously spends most of its time on-road, it is such an enjoyable drive, involving the driver in a positive manner. It also boasts promising fuel economy potential. When we took it off-road, given the obvious limitations of ground clearance, the Subaru completed our test route with ease. But what clinched it for the XV was Subaru's Everything Taken Care of customer service package, which has to be one of the best around."

The Subaru XV range starts at £21,295 on the road and is available with 1.6 petrol manual or CVT, 2.0 petrol manual or CVT and 2.0D manual options.

To find out more about the Subaru XV, visit www.subaru.co.uk.

A useful start in Life

ARE you maybe thinking of a birthday or Christmas? Then perhaps some driving lessons could be the answer. I have vouchers from £24-£45 or maybe a course of lessons (discounted) it could be the best present ever! Having a full driving licence is so important for so many reasons, rest assured I teach to a very high standard. I teach safety for life, lessons can be fun and very cost effective.

Quality not Quantity, I have personally developed and perfected over the past years a very unique teaching aid that helps to take away the conscious effort of vehicle control. It helps to co-ordinate hand, feet and eyes, which means I can teach vehicle control in a much shorter time. Then the real art of thinking outside the car begins.

If you have already passed your theory test then there is a strong possibility that you can still pass your practical before Christmas. So why not have an assessment lesson as soon as possible, you might surprise yourself. I also specialise in intensive courses!

Double switch salvages Tigers a point

Axminster Town 3 Newton Abbot 3 SOUTH-WEST PENINSULA LEAGUE DIVISION ONE (EAST)

By Philip Evans

AFTER a disappointing showing at Exmouth Town the previous week, Axminster Town put in a gritty performance at Sector Lane to win a much deserved point against another of the Division 1 East favourites Newton Spurs thanks to an inspired double substitution of manager Paul Ashford.

With midfielders Alex Wheatley and Aaron Doble still nursing injuries from the bruising battle with Exmouth's Marines, the Tigers lined up with Danny Beer returning to the back four, Ollie Highet in midfield and Jonny Hurford and Tom Perryman up front.

Newton Spurs travelled to Axminster on the back of a defeat last week to Stoke Gabriel that saw them drop to four place in the table, two places above the Tigers.

Axminster found themselves trailing early on after giving away a penalty which was converted by Adam Dyson. Keeper Luke Ashford was unlucky not to have saved the spot-kick, getting a hand to the ball but not being able to stop it dribbling into the net.

But the Tigers were not overawed by the Spurs' reputation, forcing a series of corners in which skipper Darren Stewart went close with two headers.

Axe were soon back on terms when Highet won a challenge in midfield, releasing the ball to Richie Emmett who smashed it into the far corner of the net from 25 yards, one of the best strikes seen at Sector Lane this season.

The visitors went close soon after when a long, dipping shot from the left was tipped over the bar from Ashford.

But Newton were not having it all their own way with Hurford and Perryman causing plenty of problems. As they conceded four corners within as many minutes, the visitors were under the cosh but increased their lead against the run of play after 25 minutes.

Front runner Martyn Hancock gave away a careless pass just outside the Newton penalty area, kick-starting a breakaway move by the visitors which ended in winger Mark Dyson, by far the best player on the pitch, slotting the ball home to make it 2-1.

Axe could have levelled the scores again before half time when Hurford took the ball cleverly down the left but fired straight into the keeper with the unmarked Perryman screaming for a cross into the box.

Mark Dyson nearly made it 3-1 just before the interval when he curled a free kick around the home defence with Ashford having to dive full length to save.

It was Dyson, whose overall performance was marred by his petulance aimed at the referee, got the visitors off to a blazing second-half when he coolly placing the ball wide of Ashford to extend the visitors' lead.

After full-back Elliott Dyer and Perryman had both gone close, the game degenerated into an ugly episode in which the referee failed to assert any control, although he booked three players, and Dyson limped off with a leg injury.

Axminster managed to regain their composure and Newton looked a far less effective side without Dyson.

Manager Ashdown then changed the game with a double substitution - Ben Vine and Terry Emmett coming on for Martyn Hancock and a clearly unhappy Tom Perryman. But it worked.

Within minutes Emmett slipped the ball home from close range after good work from Hurford and then Vine gave Tigers the point they deserved with a precise lob.

Axminster pushed had for the winner and Jack Night was brought on late in the game to replace Duet who was struggling with a cramp.

Had the referee played the requisite amount of injury-time, who knows the Tigers may have pulled off the shock result of the day, such was their dominance in the latter stages.

But it was a performance that will prove to Ashford that his side can more than compete with the Division One East big boys. A top four place still beckons.

Axminster: Luke Ashford; Elliott Dyer, Wes Tarr, Darren Stewart, Danny Beer; Jonny Hurford, Ollie Highet, Elliott Couch, Richie Emmett, Tom Perryman, Martyn Hancock. Subs: Terry Emmett, Ben Vine, Jack Knight, Danny Galloway (not used).

Axminster man-of-the-match: Tom Perryman

Sidmouth Town 3 Stoke Gabriel 7

THE Vikings entertained a Stoke Gabriel side that started the season as many peoples favourites for the title.

On a perfect Manstone Road pitch the home side started slowly and Stoke were two goals up inside the first 20 minutes.

Town were unable to keep possession and found it difficult to get a foothold in the game.

It was the away side who increased their lead on 40 minutes and that was to be the way the first-half ended.

With a few well chosen words from manager Paddy Thomas and a couple of adjustments at the interval Town took to the field in the second-half needing to score first to get back in the game.

Unfortunately Stoke grabbed a fourth before Matt Rasmussen replied to make it 4-1 on the hour mark.

Five minutes later Stoke restored their four-goal advantage only for Tim Lister to again reduce the deficit to three.

Back came the away side scoring twice in quick succession as Town threw men forward and it was left to Viking skipper to end the scoring with the last kick of the match.

Thomas said afterwards: "We had an off day - unfortunately it came against the best side I've seen so far this season and we let ourselves down badly."

"We train twice a week and concentrate on keeping possession, passing, movement, making space, communicating to each other."

"But after that showing I think we need to train every night!"

Sidmouth face another tough game next Saturday away to Alphington 2.15pm ko.

REPORTS

Elmore 2

Sidmouth Town Res 1

Devon & Exeter Division two
THE Vikings' reserve SIDMOUTH Town Reserves returned from top of the table Elmore defeated, but definitely not disgraced as they proved to be more than a match for their hosts in a 2-1 defeat.

In a great advert for division two football, both teams played some great stuff on a quagmire of a pitch.

It was the Vikings who started the brightest and deservedly took the lead in the 20th minute when a Joe Nield free-kick from the halfway line saw Mark Burdus challenge the 'keeper and the ball go straight in.

The home team's response was strong and they were back level on 30 minutes when their huge forward Jordan Copp headed in.

The second-half was a real battle as the home side put pressure on the visitors but the whole team defended excellently.

Just when it was looking like Sidmouth had earned an unlikely, but deserved, point a hopeful long punt was chased and for once the offside trap was broken and Kevin Mills finished well giving Artur Halka no chance.

Sidmouth Manager Nick Ogden said: "To a man we fought and battled as if our lives depended on it. I couldn't have asked for more from the lads they were a credit to our great club."

"We had a game plan and very nearly pulled it off. Elmore are a good side but we frightened them to death."

There were so many good performances from my guys the whole team deserve the man-of-the-match award.

"It's always pleasing when the opposition has good things to say about your team but the bottom line is we lost."

I am convinced that we are improving with every game and if we can keep up that work rate up and add some clinical finishing we will be more than a match for most teams.

Newtown 3rds 2

Axminster Town Res 1

Devon & Exeter division four
ON a day that the Tigers would rather forget, they came away from Exeter knowing that they had put in their worst display of the season.

From the very start they never got into the game and didn't create as many chances as in previous weeks.

Axminster went into the break all square at 0-0, but should have had their noses in front.

Newtown took the lead in the 50th minute after a break from their own half and a pass which split the Tigers defence.

The game was drifting away from Axminster when Adam Cowlings bundled the ball home from close range in the 82nd minute.

But the Tigers joy was short lived as two minutes later Newtown broke away again to score the winning goal.

ROUND-UP

UNBEATEN FENITON rocked SEATON TOWN 6-3 and were six up before the visitors hit back with three goals in the closing 15 minutes.

Paul Dowling (2) and Kieran John netted before Charlie Selley pocketed a hat-trick. Dan Norman, Jake Richards and Cameron Vere responded for Seaton but Selley then had a penalty saved.

BEER ALBION also won 6-3 at home to CLYST VALLEY. Two goal Luke Bartlett, James Melville, Martin Adkin, Matt Rowson and Adam Wakley shared the Beer goals.

HEAVITREE SOCIAL UNITED drew 1-1 at WILLAND ROVERS in a touchy game. Rovers led through Mark Sampson before Ryan Crocker salvaged a point for the Heavies.

In Division One ALPHINGTON provided one of the shocks of the day when they played out of their socks to beat BOW AAC 1-0.

Top of the table CHARD TOWN were held to a goalless draw by unbeaten TIVERTON TOWN, who drop seven points adrift of SIDBURY UNITED after their 4-0 win at CULM UNITED.

In Division Two Ben Price netted two penalties for HONITON TOWN in their 4-3 win at CLYST VALLEY. Tim Genders and Matt Brown also scored.

In Division Three two Dean Sluman strikes were not enough to prevent OFFWELL RANGERS losing 4-2 at home to OTTERY ST MARY.

Steve Madge bagged four goals for OKEHAMPTON ARGYLE as the bottom side reaped their first win of the season 8-2 at SEATON TOWN. Tom Williams, Neil Vernon, Dan Leahy and Brad Ausden added singles. It is nine wins from nine for Division Five leaders CHERITON FITZPAINE, Chris Acton scoring twice in a battling 3-0 win against ST MARTINS.

Jack Bridgeman bagged a hat-trick for SAMPFORD PEVERELL as they beat BEER ALBION 5-0.

MET OFFICE the Division Seven leaders tasted defeat for the first time beaten 4-1 by COLATONE RALEIGH.

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack

SENIOR CLUB

A STRONG south-westerly greeted the Seniors for the third round of their Winter League Programme last Friday.

In the circumstances the scoring was very creditable with the winning score of 35 points by Mick Tomes & Geoff Hubbard excellent in the conditions.

Second place went to Malcolm Glass & John White with 33 points while three teams mustered 32 points.

Third place on the day went to Chris Walker & Nick Povey and the other teams with the same score were Sid Pember & Neil Moorcraft and Rob Grove & Bryan Dale.

LADIES

AXE Cliff Ladies enjoyed the beautiful morning on Wednesday when they played a "Fun" competition playing a 15-hole Stableford using just three clubs of their choice plus a putter.

The winner was Glenda Board, with Leslie taking second place.

GRUESOME CUP

THE Axe Cliff Golf Club ladies and gentlemen played in the mixed, and appropriately named competition, the Gruesome Cup.

The cup has been contested for annually since 1980 and with drawn partners the final outcome was in doubt until the last competitors had finished.

Originally the field was restricted to those members who had participated in the Thursday Night roll-ups but with the weather being so poor this year and several matches having to be cancelled the fight for places was keenly contested.

The competition was reduced to 15 holes due to there being a local derby football match being played between Seaton Town and Beer Albion and several members/supporters wishing to attend which curtailed the victory celebration somewhat.

Nevertheless the winners who enjoyed their success by some considerable margin and obviously reveling in the balmy conditions of the cliff-top course, were Helen Kenworthy (14) and the lucky Senior's Captain, Rob Grove (15) with 34 points (See photo left).

In second place with 30 points were Doughty Board & Barbara Cummings. Their consolation being that they recorded the only "two" of the day.

PRIZE GIVING

SATURDAY night saw the great and the good turning out at the Clubhouse to be presented with the past year's 72 trophies.

Club Professional Adrian Cave acted as Master of Ceremonies as Club Captain Paul Dimond and Lady Captain Jackie Seager, assisted by Seniors' Captain John Burden and Vice-Captain Dave Morgan, handed out those glistening trophies.

Although Max Pipe's Past Devon Captain's team win at Saunton was exceptional, the pinnacle of the evening was the presenting of the County Trophy that our A Team, captained by Andy Ford, won for only the fourth time in our history.

TUESDAY MIXED

THERE was four Clubs and a Putter
Greensome Stableford format this Tuesday.

The scores were very good with the winners Sue Ritchie & John Northover carding 38pts.

In 2nd place with 36pts were Dot Grove & Max Pipe while 3rd position went to Jan Dickinson & Bob Barnes with 31pts.

First half onslaught hits Sidmouth

WITH KEITH JENKIN

I SPENT a frustrating Saturday afternoon watching England, in their hideous maroon strip, concede far too many penalties and knock too many balls on to give themselves a chance of winning.

CHARD 50 SIDMOUTH 20

AFTER this encounter I was left with the feeling that, if I made Chard underdogs in my predication, consistently between now and the season's end, they would probably end up winning the division.

In fact they blew Sidmouth, a side who are far better in attack than they are in defence, away by the end of a first 40 minutes by playing scintillating rugby.

The home side gave an early taste of what was to come when centre Lee Massey made a break and carried for some 40 metres before the game was five minutes old. He was checked just short but his run had set the position for his side. The ball was recycled.

The visitors employed a rushed defence.
Doak grubbed and Douglass was up to gather and score by the posts. Doak converted and Chard were 7-0 ahead.

Sidmouth then lost a flanker to injury and, around the ten minute mark, Douglas dum-mied, broke, found Stead on his inside and the full back took the ball at pace and scored, again by the posts for Doak to again convert.

Some five minutes later it was Douglas himself who both created and executed, touching down under the bar. Doak kicked his third conversion of the game and Chard led 21-0 well before the end of the first quarter.

Sidmouth, who must have been wondering just what had hit them, did rally and go on to the attack, principally through Higgs. His efforts were not enough however.

Chard went back onto the attack and scored the try that ensured the bonus point when Doak slipped through and scored a try that he goaled himself after 25 minutes play.

Knowing of their opponents attacking capabilities, Chard increased their lead by kicking a penalty goal through Doak on the half hour, then just before the break, flanker Wright, who was involved in most things good, was held up and, from the ensuing five metre scrum Chard, eschewing the shove, sent the ball wide.

Stead came into the line at pace and scored out wide. The try remained unconverted but served to give the home side a commanding 36-0 interval lead.

Sidmouth, although they must have been shell-shocked at this stage, were far from down and out. They got the first score of the second-half when Retter dropped a goal, and followed it with their best spell of the game.

In fact it was very much against the run of play that the home side notched a further try, again touched down by Stead under the posts, for Doak to convert.

With the scoreline now standing at 43-3 in home favour the result was now surely beyond doubt, but Sidmouth's heads never dropped.

Higgs got over for a try to which his efforts had surely entitled him, around the hour mark. Retter converted this one, but could not add the extras to the next, touched down by Channing.

The home side had rung the changes at this stage, and their cohesion suffered marginally, with Sidmouth continuing to prosper, and another unconverted try was their reward, scored by Higgs, his second of the afternoon.

It was the home side who had the final say however when front rower Jenkins got over close to the uprights.

Doak converted to complete the scoring and to bring to the end a great game of rugby to which the visitors had contributed a lot more than the final scoreline remotely suggests.

HONITON 24 KINGSBRIDGE 36

OVERALL, this game was probably a bit closer than the final score suggests. The home side played up the Allhallows slope initially, and two well worked tries by Kingsbridge set them back.

Both the visitors' tries remained uncon-verted, and Meadows got his side back into the game around the end of the first quarter by kicking a penalty goal.

A third Kingsbridge try, converted this time, followed but, just before the interval, Ben Small hacked on a loose ball from well inside his own territory, followed, and hacked on again.

His effort was checked close to the line but a Kingsbridge player was deemed to have fouled when the try would most probably have been scored, and the referee awarded a penalty try that Meadows converted, taking the score to 10-17 at the halfway stage, and certainly leaving Honiton "in with a sniff" of a win.

Three Kingsbridge tries, two of which were converted, put any further thoughts of a home victory very firmly to one side by the end of the third quarter. Honiton came back strongly however and had a good final twenty minutes.

They reduced the deficit by scoring their second penalty try of the game when they moved the ball wide, recycling a couple of times en route, for Josh Barrett to get over in the corner and for Meadows to again convert, they were certainly in line for a losing bonus point, with the scoreline now standing at 24-36.

Alas it was not to be! They had a chance at the last, but failed to convert a two on one situation and would have been frustrated to have come away with nothing after a game to which they had contributed significantly.

KINGSBRIDGE 2nd 75 HONITON 2nd 5

ALTHOUGH the Honiton front five were in the ascendancy throughout, the fitter and faster home outfit made it one way traffic from start to finish against a side on whom first team calls had impacted considerably.

The score at the halfway stage was 48-0 in home favour and, although Honiton got an unconverted try at the last, touched down by full-back Ledger, it was of no more than a consolation.

Seaton U11 1 Twyford 3

IN the first half the teams were very evenly matched with Twyford scoring first and Seaton quickly equalising through Alfie Bullmore.

The key moment came 10 minutes from time when the referee made a controversial decision and awarded Twyford a penalty after a penalty box scramble which ended up with a Seaton player on the ground.

A Twyford shot struck the player as he was trying to pick himself up.

The penalty was converted and Seaton then got caught chasing an equaliser and the Spartans scored a late goal to make the final score 3-1.

HONITON took the lead when Sophie George struck 'a blinder' from a penalty corner pass in the eighth minute.

Laura Franks – who had a splendid game throughout – was the next to find the back of the net with a little help from Kat Tucker in the circle.

George then added her second, also following a penalty corner before Dawn Mayo helped the ball to the back board after a pass into the circle following yet another penalty corner.

As the game resumed after the half-time break, it looked as if the home side were relaxing a little; but the visitors were clearly not, as they pushed up the field putting pressure on the home defence.

The visitors pulled a consolation goal back after the restart.

AXE VALLEY RUNNERS

with Dave Mutter

WHAT cracking weather it was for the tenth running of the Drogo Ten, a 10-mile off-road course with two major hills that showed off Dartmoor's near winter raiment in spectacular fashion.

A total of 486 hardy souls enjoyed the run, with Wild Runners' Ceri Rees powering to victory in 1:01:30.

There were some brilliant AVR performances, not least with Phil Bayliss winning the over 60 category, 47th overall in 1:14:48. Then there was Matt Clist 5th, 1:06:13 and Tim Lenton 8th, 1:08:15.

There followed a series of good results with Robin Britton 97th, 1:21:51; Amy Greenhalgh 119th, 1:24:37 and Eleanor Wood 135th, 1:25:45. Mark Hilder caught up with Geoff Woodward, but Geoff's ramblings drove him to distraction resulting in Geoff pulling away to finish 169th, 1:28:21 and Mark 174th, 1:28:41.

Ian Clements was 190th, 1:29:47 and Roger Bramley 223rd, 1:33:22. Richard Hale started slowly (so he says) then overhauled 4 AVR's near the end to be 230th, 1:33:59.

Those he overtook were Sam

Wickens 254th, 1:36:29; John Larcombe 257th, 1:36:44; Anna McLoughlin 259th, 1:36:56 and Alison Bowkell 261st, 1:37:13.

Both Anna and Alison had particularly good times. Dave Mutter spied Steve Reynolds running with a gait that resembled a fat duck's wobble. It turned out unlucky Steve had pulled a muscle resulting in Dave finishing 320th, 1:42:08 and Steve 448th, 1:59:31.

Everyone had a great morning many thanks to Paul Johns for chauffeuring the gang safely there and back.

Alex Todd decided to try Honiton RC's 'Children in Need Duathlon' based at Payhembury.

This was a 2.5 mile run, 10-mile cycle around muddy lanes and another 2.5 mile run. He really enjoyed his first duathlon and was delighted to win it in 1hour 56 mins.

HONITON RC with Judy Davy

FOR Children-in-Need weekend Honiton Running Club organised a Duathlon to raise money for this worthy cause.

The event was based at the Payhembury Village Hall and comprised a 2.3 mile run followed by a 10 mile bike ride and finally the 2.3 mile run again.

There were nine individuals who completed all three legs, but also several families joined in with children participating in one or two of the legs making a total of 23 participants.

The winner by a long way was Alex Todd from Axe Valley Runners in a time of 1hr 59secs followed by last years winner Richard Harvey in a time of 1:12:53, four minutes slower than last year.

Helen Davy successfully defended her title as first lady in a time of 1hr 17mins 51secs coming third.

Other Honiton participants were Nick and Sandra Thorpe who came 4th and 8th and Tony Whiteley who came fifth.

Sue Jones also rode the bike leg which included an out and return from Honiton and Maggie Dillon did the first two legs but couldn't face the final run.

The event raised just over £150 for Children in Need.

Ten Honiton RC members took part in South West Road Runners' Castle Drogo 10 mile off-road run on Sunday.

This race boasts two particularly tough hills with the first as runners come to Fingle Bridge for the first time after about three miles.

This is followed by a nice downhill section but then a long gradual leg sapping climb before a long stretch beside the River Teign.

Just after runners reach Fingle Bridge for the second time, they are directed up Hunters' Path which is a half mile climb that no-one will forget.

The race was won in 1 hour 1 minute by last year's winner, Ceri Rees. Bruce Strawbridge was first back for Honiton coming 62nd in 1:17 with Steve Davey not as close as usual in 76th place in 1:19.

Howard Bidmead was next back in 141st place in 1:26. He was followed by new member Mark Dallyn who had a good run to finish 201st in 1:30.

Judy Davey was the first of the Honiton ladies home in 219th place in 1:33. Lesley Crocker soon followed in 272nd place in 1:38.

Nick Bradley-Carter was just four places ahead of Steve Briggs finishing 328th in 1:42 whilst Steve finished just a few seconds later in 1:43.

Clare Melbourne has been putting in some hill training and it showed with her 420th position finish in 1:55. Tracey Strawbridge completed the Honiton line up finishing in 470th place in 2:06. There were 486 finishers.

On the same day, Graham Reeves and Sam Shute took part in the Old Deer Park 10k in Richmond.

The course is very flat starting in the Old Deer Park, then out onto the roads of Richmond with the runners then following the river Thames before heading back into the park for the finish.

Graham was first back in 37th place knocking 32 seconds off his pb in a time of 39:53. Sam also managed a pb finishing in 496th in a time of 56:38.

Honiton runners were certainly well spread out over the weekend as Stephen Boyes took part in the Luton Marathon.

This is a three lap course through Luton and the immediate surrounding countryside on roads and pathways.

Stephen was a bit disappointed as he only managed 3 hours 42 due to cramp in his leg at 23 miles which slowed him up. The race was won by Neil Aitken in 2:42.

Tigers still in the running after plucky draw

IT wasn't pretty in places and it was fast and furious but Axminster Town proved in their 3-3 draw at home to Newton Spurs on Saturday that they can compete with the top teams in the South West Peninsular League Division One East.

Newton Spurs, having lost the previous week, have dropped out of the top four but, like Axminster, have games in hand over the teams above them.

Stoke Gabriel have taken over as league leaders after their 7-3 win over Sidmouth Town on Saturday with previous leaders Budleigh Salterton being beaten by Exeter University.

Exmouth Town still look like favourites, trailing the leaders by two points but with two games in hand.

The Tigers, who stay in sixth place, are four points behind the leaders on the same number of games but they have three games in hand over Budleigh in second place and Civil Service in third.

If they show the resilience demonstrated on Saturday, when they fought back from 3-1 down to 3-3, a top four place is well within their grasp.

But it won't be easy because, with the exception of Sidmouth, there are few weak teams in Division One East.

On Saturday the Tigers travel to Plymstock who are lying second from bottom with only one victory to their name this season.

Three points are essential from this fixture as the following week they meet new leaders Stoke Gabriel who are much fancied for the title.

With John Hurford back up front on Saturday and Tom Perryman starting, Axminster's front line, completed by Richie Emmett and Martyn Hancock, gave Newton Spurs all sorts of problems. And Emmett's sweet strike in the 16th minute was one of the best goals seen at Sector this season.

The Tigers definitely missed the injured Alex Wheatley and Aaron Doble in midfield, although Ollie Highet did a good job.

In defence, skipper Darren Stewart and the tenacious Wes Tarr have formed a good partnership and Danny Beer made a brave effort marking Newton Spurs' Mark Dyson, one of the best players in the league.

Elsewhere in the Axe Valley, Seaton Town were on the wrong end of a 6-3 thumping from Devon & Exeter Premier high flyers Feniton and Beer Albion won by a similar scoreline at home to Clyst Valley.

This coming Saturday Seaton are at home to struggling Exmouth Amateurs but Beer are without a game.

In Division One Colyton will be looking for their first win of the season at home to fellow strugglers Culm United.

Axminster Reserves, who dropped points to Newtown on Saturday, travel to neighbours Axmouth United in Division Four.

After a week off, Millwey Rise return to Perry Street League action with an away fixture against Perry Street.
